The all-international triple will be a big threat for any team drawn against them. Hard to see this combo not qualifying into the quarter finals. All three players are either currently wearing or have worn the Silver Fern & performed against the heavy hitters of international bowls.

23 year old McIlroy has reclaimed his spot as New Zealand's singles player for the upcoming Trans Tasman series against Australia in Invercargill. Rewind to March 2009 in Brisbane where he disposed of World No.1 Leif Selby twice 21-11; 21-8 & forced the Australians to switch their side. McIlroy duly sank Anthony Kiepe 21-12 & led New Zealand to a famous victory. That was his last outing for New Zealand in the singles role.

This triple is stacked full of class, & many are predicting even this early on that they will take the spoils. "CLD", "Hillbilly" & "Shunta" will certainly be ones to watch.
